Newspaper Service Bureau Inaugurates Credit Check

Daily credit reports are now being distributed to the credit offices and business associations of Southern California by the Los Angeles Newspaper Service Bureau, Inc., it was revealed at the Twenty-Sixth Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Bureau, held this week, by H. A. Lawson, the president, in his annual report.

Gross billings last year were more than $1.5 million, the president reported, 60 times the volume of its first year's business in 1934.

NEW DIRECTOR, elected by the stockholders, was Deane Funk, co-publisher of the Santa Monica Evening Outlook. He was named to the board of five as representative of suburban daily newspapers.

Funk is a graduate of Stanford University and was recently awarded the Santa Monica Junior Chamber of Commerce award as the outstanding young man of 1959 in his community.

T. Harwood Young of the Hollywood Citizen-News was elected vice-president of the newspaper association. Other directors, in addition to Funk and Young and Lawson, are John Valentine of the Antelope Valley Gazette of Lancaster and Ralph Turner of the Temple City News.

THE BUREAU is a mutual association owned and operated by 105 community daily and weekly newspapers of Los Angeles County specializing in public notices and legal advertising. In addition to the recently inaugurated credit reporting service and its advertising agency, the Bureau also publishes the Los Angeles Daily Law Journal and also conducts an extensive printing and publishing business. It employs 80 persons.

Telford Work of Pacific Palisades is secretary-treasurer of the group and Robert E. Work of Pasadena is assistant secretary-treasurer.
